

Friday Arts & Humanities Award

Start of Block: Default Question Block

Q10

The Institute for the Arts and Humanities (IAH) and Honors Carolina—with the generous support of the William C. Friday Leadership Fund—are proud to offer an exciting opportunity for undergraduate students to assist IAH Faculty Fellows in their current research projects. Students will also acquire fundamental skills in conducting graduate-level research in the arts and humanities. In an effort to initiate and foster new collaborative partnerships, preference will be given to faculty/student pairings that have not previously worked together on funded research projects. Interdisciplinary projects are highly encouraged.

Eligibility: This opportunity is for undergraduate students and for IAH Faculty Fellows or Academic Leadership Program Fellows. Student and fellow need to submit a joint application. Preference will be given to faculty/student pairings that have not previously worked together on funded research projects.

Amount: Students receive a $2,000 stipend.

For more information, please attend an information session in Hyde Hall on October 24, from 3:00 - 4:00 p.m. Space is limited. Click here to access the Qualtrics registration form for this event.
